

Three-Year-Old Daughter of Ranger Killed by Bear

St. Ignace, Mich., July 8.—(U)—The three-year-old daughter of a forest ranger was killed yesterday by a large black bear which snatched her from the steps of her home and carried her off into the woods while her mother watched helplessly.

A hastily organized posse of 50 farmers and forest rangers found the crushed body of the girl, Carol Ann Pomeranky, several hundred yards away in the dense undergrowth. The bear which weighed about 200 pounds was tracked down and killed.

Mrs. Arthur Pomeranky, mother of the victim, said she was working in the kitchen when she saw the bear come into the cabin yard. She thought little of it because the bears in the Marquette National Forest are considered harmless.

Suddenly, she said, the bear lunged toward Carol Ann and seized the screaming child.

The horrified mother ran after the bear shaking the broom she had in her hands at the time of the incident, but the bear ignored her and fled into the woods carrying the girl.

Mrs. Pomeranky telephoned her

Market Report

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, July 8.—(U)—Cotton futures registered moderate gains today, influenced partly by a lower than expected estimate on 1948 cotton plantings by the Dept. of Agriculture.

The government forecast of plantings at 23,852,000 acres compared with trade figures of around 24,000,000 and actual plantings last year of 21,500,000.

Cotton futures sagged into new low ground for the day on late liquidation. Failure of the market to respond to the lower than expected acreage report, increased pressure on nearby July, and the quiet export situation contributed to the weakness.

Futures closed 15 to 17 cents a bale lower than the previous close.

from Mr. Truman.

Southern states have been at odds with President Truman in recent months over his civil rights program.

Days said adoption of the proposed Gossett-Lodge constitutional amendment providing for election of presidents by popular vote rather than by electoral vote would "do much to correct the situation which has made the South a political stepchild."

There is one favorable new development that has political significance," he said, "and that is the evidence of political support outside the South for such measures as federal aid for education, in which Arkansas and virtually all Southern states have a tremendous interest."

"Governor Dewey's overtures to educational leaders indicate that political support of this type will not be ignored.

It is ironic that we must rely upon Republican support since the Democratic party, which has had unchallenged control not only of the politics of the South, but of the nation for so many years, failed to take any steps to solve this fundamental problem of financing the public school system."

Minors Asked to Raise Funds for Olympic Team

Columbus, O., July 8.—(U)—Minor league baseball fans will be asked Sunday to make up a $90,000 deficit in U. S. Olympic team funds.

George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the minors), suggested yesterday that "Olympic Day" at every minor league game and the fans "be given an opportunity to make voluntary contributions to the Olympic fund."

Trautman said he took the action after learning the United States Olympic committee might be forced to leave at least 70 outfielders at home because of lack of money.

Helium is now used to inflate airplane tires and to treat respiratory diseases.

Democratic Party Chief Calls for Unity

Washington, July 8.—(AP)—Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath appealed today for "all loyal Democrats to contribute to the unity of the party."

Commenting on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's latest statement, McGrath said in a statement that President Truman will be nominated on the first ballot.

His statement follows: "Gen. Eisenhower's recent statement of his position that he could not accept a political nomination in the forthcoming presidential election, offers an appropriate time to ask all loyal Democrats to contribute to the unity of the party."

"This does not mean that there should be no division of opinion or that our convention should not be a free and open forum. It does, however, suggest that the time has come when we should be proclaiming the achievements of our party and its leadership."

"Knowing the forthrightness of General Eisenhower, I have never entertained the slightest doubt of his original statement. This being so, I have adhered to the view which I now restate, that in my opinion, President Truman will be nominated, as he deserves, by the forthcoming Democratic national convention on the first ballot."

Ben Laney Mentioned as Possibility

Birmingham, July 7.—(AP)—A leader of the Southern revolt against President Truman forecast today nomination of either Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi or Gov. Ben Laney of Arkansas by States Rights Democrats July 17.

Ex-Gov. Frank M. Dixon, member of the southward States Rights committee campaigning against Truman, made the prediction.

States Rights have agreed to meet in Birmingham July 17, provided President Truman is nominated at Philadelphia, or if the civil rights plank in the party platform is unsatisfactory to Southern delegations.

The Birmingham meeting would suggest to Southern presidential electors that they cast their states votes next November for the man chosen in Birmingham, and not for the Philadelphia nominee.

Sherman Didn't Want Any Part of Politics

By FRANK KELEAZER
Washington, July 7.—(UP)—Sherman who went through Georgia faster than Eisenhower did Europe, said no politics, even more bluntly than Ike. But even so his followers didn't believe it. They tried, to the end, to boom Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman into the 1948 Republican nomination for president. The boom was a bust. Sherman got two votes, James G. Blaine, an old hand in politics, got the nomination on the fourth ballot. He lost the election. If Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower through his latest disavowal of politics hopes would take him out of the Democratic race, he must have forgotten about Sherman. Ike said he "could not accept" nomination for any public office. Sherman said about 10 days before the 1904 GOP convention met in Chicago: "I will not in any event entertain or accept a nomination." Later the union hero told Convention Chairman John B. Henderson to issue his regrets in event anyone proposed his name. And in what Sherman probably look to be the clincher, he added: "I will not accept if nominated and will not serve if elected." Did that stop Henderson? Not a chance.

Farm Bureau Asks Attack on Prices

By OVID MARTIN
Philadelphia, July 7.—(AP)—The American Farm Bureau Federation asked the Democratic party today to pledge a new governmental attack on the problem of skyrocketing prices. Opening hearings on the 1948 Democratic platform, H. E. Slusher, a member of the board of the powerful farm organization, proposed specifically that Congress set up a national monetary commission to find ways of stabilizing prices.

"A democracy of free enterprise cannot flourish and may not even survive continuing fluctuation of the general price level," said Slusher. He is president of the farm bureau in President Truman's home state of Missouri. Thus the farm leader brought up an issue with which Democrats hope to win votes in November. Mr. Truman and other Democratic leaders have blamed the Republican Congress for swelling prices since wartime controls were dropped.

The Democratic platform drafters got off to a quiet, friendly start. But beneath it was an air of expectancy. Sharp and perhaps bitter battles appeared to be shaping up over civil rights and labor plans. U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the 18-member committee, told news men Mr. Truman undoubtedly will be consulted on the document before it is presented to the party's convention next week.

"I think he should be consulted before the platform is presented formally to the convention," Myers added.

Myers said the platform writers "quite naturally would like to avoid a convention floor fight on the platform. We are aiming at unanimous approval without compromising on issues."

Another early witness — Morris S. Kohn, representing the National Association of Manufacturers, lashed out upon the international situation. He urged a plank pledging United States' cooperation with other peoples to maintain "peace and human freedom."

On domestic issues, Saylor objected to pacifism, government controls, either direct or indirect, over "wages, prices, production distribution or consumption."

In triumph, he will march to a civic victory no less renowned than those of war.

The New York Tribune's reporter wrote that the faint applause that followed "fairly scuttled the boom for the general."

In the 1884 GOP convention, Democrats in 1948 can find some parallels.

President Chester A. Arthur, who as vice-president took office when President James A. Garfield was assassinated in 1881, wanted a term of his own.

But many in his own party said he was a "political liability." The practical politicians wanted a "strong man" to defeat the Democratic candidate.

The Democratic nominee, as was already apparent, was going to be Grover Cleveland. Cleveland was widely popular as the governor of New York.

Arthur, like President Truman, wouldn't step aside. On the first ballot Blaine got 334 - 12 of the 411 votes needed for nomination.

Arthur got 278. Among other candidates was Sen. John Sherman of Ohio, the general's brother. He got 30 - 15 times the war hero's two.

Ike can find more personal parallels: Sherman was a West Pointer. He was likeable, sociable, a good conversationalist. After working his way to the top in the army, he retired about a year before the convention.

Though not at that time a college president, he had been one. During an earlier period of service he had become superintendent of a new academy in Louisiana. It later became LSU.

Sherman had his troubles in the

Harris Again Picks Rookies to Pave Way

Chicago July 8—(UP)—Rookie Harris, who relied on rookie pitchers Joe Page and Frank Saca last year to help him pilot the New York Yankees to the world championship, picked rookies again today to help him direct the American League all-star squad, to its fifth victory in the annual diamond classic.

Harris named eight pitchers on his 25 man squad, and four of them, headed by Cleveland's converted outfielder sensation, Bob Emon, were on the all-star team for the first time. Other newcomers were Vic Raschi of New York, Luce Coleman of Philadelphia, and Joe Haynes of Chicago.

Veteran pitchers selected by Harris were Bob Feller, Cleveland; Hal Newhouse, Detroit; Walt Masterson, Washington and the Yankees' Page.

Harris went a bit stronger for mound strength than did Lippy Leo Durocher the Brooklyn Dodger manager who will pilot the National League nine. Durocher named only six hurlers, headed by Elmer Riddle, the Cincinnati Reds castoff who has a record of 9 and 3. Other National League pitchers will be Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati, 5-5; Ralph Branca, Brooklyn, 10-4; Harry Brodhead, St. Louis 9-3; Johnny Schmitz, Chicago, 7-9; and Johnny Sain, Boston 10-5.

The records of the Harris hurlers were Feller 8-9, Newhouse, 11-6; Raschi 9-3, Page 2-4; Masterson 10-6; Coleman 8-6; Haynes 5-7, and Lemon, 12-0.

Arrangements are being made to broadcast the Hope-Little Rock Junior Legion game there tomorrow starting at 1:30 p.m. over Station KXAR.

This is one of the best teams in this part of the state and tonight's affair promises to be one that all fans will want to see. Smith, Magnolia's star hurler will be pitted against Ferguson for Hope. Jack Bell will likely be working behind the plate instead of Pony Reeves, Hope's regular catcher, who is on vacation. The only other regular who may not be in the starting lineup is Sedford Bell. Others who may be working in Bell's place are Carl Stuart and Julian Spillars. The game will be broadcast over KXAR beginning at 8:15 with game time at 8:30. Long John McLeod will bring a play by play account of the game to the radio listening audience. Loud speakers will be set up at the park for the benefit of the large crowd that is expected to see the game. Umpire Ralph Cornelius will likely be calling behind the plate.

In league play last night the Frigidaires downed the Boosters 7 to 5 and Busby took a 12 to 2 licking from 164.

Tomorrow afternoon the Junior Legion team goes to Little Rock for a game with the Doughboys starting at 1:30 p.m. at Lamar-Porter field.

Here Is A Positive
Highway Program
Which Will Be Submitted To You, The People, FOR A VOTE!

VITAL ISSUE IN THIS CAMPAIGN! Every voter in Arkansas knows that we need, desperately, new roads. Everyone agrees that if more money is not available to build or repair our present roads, destruction of our $250,000,000 highway system threatens.

ADDITIONAL FUNDS MUST BE HAD! There is only one way we can have roads, we must have additional money. The State Highway Advisory Committee after comprehensive study has said so. State Highway Department officials have said so.

Where Can Arkansas Get Additional Highway Funds?

- Arkansas can get additional money for its highways in only one of three ways:
- (1) By Taxation! Existing taxes would be increased; new taxes levied; or both! I oppose these methods!
 - (2) By diverting millions of welfare, school or other revenues to highways. This Must Not Happen!
 - (3) By borrowing. Use of our credit—our best available asset—is the cheapest and best way of getting new funds.

If We Borrow--How Much Should We Borrow?

Enough to assure that we receive all Federal highway funds available to us: $7,900,000 in 1949; $6,700,000 in 1950; $6,700,000 in 1951; $6,700,000 in 1952. That's $28,000,000 in four years.

How Much Would That Get Us for Construction?

That $28,000,000 assures Arkansas $30,000,000 for new construction! $20,000,000 a year for new roads now! How? By borrowing $28,000,000 in Federal highway funds. Isn't that a bargain? The other $23,000,000 would come from current highway revenues. You can build a lot of roads for $30,000,000!

Will This Affect Our Present Turnbacks, or Credit?

No! Present turnbacks to counties and municipalities will not be reduced a cent. Our present orderly debt retirement program will not be affected. Maintenance funds now required by law will not be reduced. The state's credit will not be impaired.

Will the People Have the Final Say?

Absolutely! It is not even suggested, nor would it be legally possible, to borrow money without a vote by the people of Arkansas. The people will have the final say in separate votes—on each of the four suggested annual borrowings. If the people are not satisfied with the results achieved any year of the program, they can reject any further borrowing.

How Would the Bonds Be Sold?

At public sale—not in a private deal behind closed doors.

How Much Would Our Total Debt Increase?

After having spent $60,000,000 of additional funds for new construction, the state's total highway debt will have increased by $13,710,000 during the four year period.

Isn't Arkansas's Future Worth Investing In?

I say it is. Borrowing implies faith in our future. Arkansas is a thriving growing state, with vastly greater possibilities for the future. How shall we face our future? I say with courage, vision and faith. We need capital to grow and forge ahead. I say let's get it and march ahead with confidence to the greatness the future offers us.

I Challenge My Opposition To Submit Its Highway Program
(if any) - TO THE PEOPLE!

Three Children Drown Trying to Save Another

Jacksonville, Fla., July 8—(UP)—Three children lost their lives in the St. Johns river, in an apparent attempt to rescue one of their number from drowning. Police reported today.

Other children who were playing nearby told the story. One of the four saw the other three waded out in the spot where the bottom dropped off sharply.

Truman Aides Count 'Ike' Definitely Out

By JACK BELL
Philadelphia, July 8—(AP)—President Truman's aides counted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower definitely and finally out of the Democratic presidential race today.

They did this, a Truman spokesman told a reporter, after receiving private assurances from two close personal friends of the general.

The word they took to the White House was that Eisenhower himself believes he left no loophole for a draft movement in his statement that he couldn't take any party's nomination.

The wartime European commander gave some public support to this view when he told a crowd of 5,000 gathered before his New York City home last night to chant "We want Ike" that "All I have to say I said in a letter the other night."

This was the statement in which the Columbia University president declined he "could not accept nomination for any public office."

Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath put the "definite and final" label on Eisenhower's draft renunciation at a news conference here yesterday, adding:

"I couldn't conceive that the Democratic convention would exercise such poor judgment as not to take General Eisenhower at his word."

There was evidence, however, that some Democrats were, and some weren't.

James Roosevelt, traveling toward Philadelphia with the weighty 52-vote California delegation, said at Salt Lake he thinks Eisenhower still would accept the nomination if the convention opens Monday demonstrates that the party is unitedly behind the general.

"I can't help but think that when General Eisenhower understands the national and international issues, knows that the party and the nation are for him, he will allow the convention to place him in the White House," the son of the late president said.

and themselves were swallowed up.

A small boy ran to the nearest house, where the housewife called police.

Patrolman H. W. Erminger dived into the water and pulled out the bodies of two of the children. He found Shirley Crowe, 12, lying unconscious on the bank, and she was revived within a few minutes.

The third body was recovered by grappling hooks when more officers arrived.

The dead were Shirley's sister, Caroline Crowe, 13, of Miami and Jimmy Dechain, four, and Johnny Dechain nine, of Jacksonville.

The children-witnesses thought it was little Jimmy who had been the first to sink and the others were trying to save him.

Mr. Truman's aides said some suggestions had been made that Roosevelt be named as the vice-presidential candidate in a compromise move. They added they had rejected this proposal.

Out of the Deep South, with its rebellion against Mr. Truman's civil rights program, came word from Senator Lister Hill of Alabama that he is not giving up on Eisenhower, Alabama, first on the roll call list, could make it possible for Eisenhower's name to be the first offered to the convention.

Hill, who voted for the military draft, said that Eisenhower can't escape a draft any more than the nations youth.

"If we are to draft our youth," Hill said, "we can draft their commander-in-chief."

Former Gov. Chauncey Sparks said, on the other hand, that while he doesn't think Alabama or the South is for Truman, he thinks the president's nomination is a cinch.

But Queens Democratic Leader James A. Roe announced he will offer the convention a resolution asking that Mr. Truman step aside. He said he also plans to place Eisenhower's name in nomination.

Without reference to this, Paul E. Fitzpatrick, New York Democratic chairman, said that his state's Democrats are "proud to stand on Mr. Truman's record."

Fitzpatrick said Mr. Truman will get most of New York's 38 convention votes, a bloc that will have turnback $3,517; farm-to-market $2,169.

Out of all this Truman-Eisenhower talk came a new voice to urge a compromise on Justice William O. Douglas of the U. S. Supreme Court.

The report said all county records were in good condition.

Little Rock, July 8—(AP)—Howard Clardy, convicted in Craighead circuit court of keeping a gambling house, has appealed to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Clardy was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. He was accused of being connected with operation of Blue's place near Jonesboro.
